

Copyright Declaration

To comply with the Copyright and Related Rights Regulations 2003 regarding the supply of photocopies of articles or parts of published works, ONE of the following declarations must be signed to indicate whether your request is for commercial or non-commercial research.

EITHER

I declare that the requested material is for research for a commercial purpose.

I recognise that I am confined to requesting the copying of one article only from an issue of a periodical.

Name _____ Signature* _____

Date _____

OR

I declare that:

1. I require the requested material for the purpose of research for a non-commercial purpose or private study.
2. I have not previously been supplied with a copy of the same material by you or any other librarian.
3. I will not use the copy except for research for a non-commercial purpose or private study and will not supply a copy of it to any other person.
4. I recognise that I am confined to requesting the copying of one article only from an issue of a periodical.
5. To the best of my knowledge, no other person with whom I work or study has made, or intends to make, at or about the same time as this request, a request for substantially the same material for substantially the same purpose.
6. If the items are delivered by an electronic method (which includes facsimile transmission), I will retain only a single paper copy and destroy any electronic copies after printing.

I understand that if this declaration is false in a material particular the copy supplied to me by you will be an infringing copy and that I shall be liable for infringement of copyright as if I had made the copy myself.

Name _____ Signature* _____

Date _____

* This must be the personal signature of the person making the request.