

Importance of Statistics in Library

*Suma S Thomas

Abstract

Statistics are an important tool whenever library and information professionals advocate for their goals. Library statistics are necessary for the effective management of libraries. Libraries have assumed new responsibilities in a changing information world; they need statistics for managing and promoting these new tasks.

Keywords: Statistics, Library, Software packages, Decision making.

*Librarian, Rizvi College Of Arts, Science & Commerce, Bandra (W)